July 22-27: Prime Minister Kadhimi Accelerates Iraqi Army Deployments to Retake Border Crossings from Iran-backed Militias. Prime Minister Kadhimi deployed Iraqi Army units to border crossings in three border provinces with Iran between July 22 and 27. Kadhimi is likely attempting to reclaim the crossings both to recover provincial administrative revenue and to signal his reformist agenda to the United States ahead of the upcoming US-Iraq Strategic Dialogue.

Iraqi Security Forces Kill Three Anti-Government Protesters During Baghdad Rally. Unspecified members of the ISF killed at least three protesters and injured 21 others using live ammunition and tear gas canisters fired directly into crowds at anti-government rallies beginning on July 26 in Tahrir Square, Baghdad. Kadhimi condemned the attacks on protesters and ordered the ISF to ensure the safety of all Iraqis during protest demonstrations. The ISF claimed it will continue to prevent violence and protect the peace. Baghdad's local security council had earlier ordered the ISF to prevent protests and enforce public order.

July 24: Iraqi Proxy Militia Launches Four Rockets at Coalition Forces at Basmaya. Two rockets were launched from an area in the city of Yathrib, about 100km northeast of Baghdad, at a Coalition facility on July 24. One rocket landed on Iraq's 15th Air Force Squadron and caused “significant damage” to one of its aircraft, according to the SMC. A second rocket caused material damage to a weapons and defense warehouse, and the third one killed an ISF soldier and damaged an ISF vehicle.
