On June 12, a Diyala provincial council member stated that Peshmerga conducted operations to clear ISIS “sleeper cells” in Qara Tapa sub-district, west of Khanaqin.

On June 11, the Baghdad Operations Command (BOC) stated that the Federal Police (FP) 2nd Brigade dismantled a Vehicle-Borne Improvised Explosive Device (VBIED) on Palestine Street in the Rusafa area in eastern Baghdad and the Iraqi Army (IA) 54th Brigade dismantled a VBIED in the Qadisiya area of northwestern Baghdad.

On June 11, the Nujaba Movement (NM) stated that NM operations, west of Samarra, targeted ISIS camps and inflicted “large losses” on ISIS.

On June 12, an Anbar Operations Command (AOC) source stated that the Iraqi Security Forces (ISF) conducted a “large-scale” operation in the 5km Area, west of Ramadi, killing 13 ISIS members and destroying three VBIEDs.

On June 12, a Golden Division (GD) source stated that the GD foiled an ISIS attack at Fallujah University campus, killing four attackers wearing SVESTs.

On June 11, Interior Ministry (MoI) intelligence directed Iraqi airstrikes at an ISIS meeting in Qa‘im in western Anbar, killing 16 ISIS members and wounding 11 others. The DoD stated that one airstrike targeted ISIS “near Qa‘im.”

On June 11, the BOC stated that the IA 59th Brigade cleared al-Hamra area, northwest of Garma sub-district, northeast of Fallujah, destroying five “explosives factories” and six VBIEDs. The MoD also stated that ISF airstrikes destroyed ISIS “dens” near Shiha Bridge, north of Garma. On June 12, a “Popular Mobilization” commander stated that the IA and “Popular Mobilization” killed five ISIS members in the Rashad area of Garma. The Nujaba Movement also stated that its fighters killed an ISIS member in Garma.

On June 10, the Khalidiya district deputy police chief stated that “heavy equipment” and weapons were distributed to tribal fighters within the “Popular Mobilization,” and were deployed to the “front lines.” On June 11, “Liberation Battalions” and the “Popular Mobilization” reportedly targeted ISIS gatherings in Albu Bali, east of Ramadi, with mortars and Katyusha rockets, killing six ISIS members and wounding 18 others. The IA 8th Division shelled ISIS gatherings in al-Fahilat, Albu Dajj, east of Ramadi with artillery, destroying ten vehicles. On June 12, FP commandos “infiltrated” ISIS positions in eastern Husayba, east of Ramadi, destroying three towers used by snipers. The DoD stated that on June 12, two airstrikes targeted ISIS “near Ramadi.”

On June 11, an anonymous security source stated that coalition airstrikes destroyed an ISIS “headquarters” in central Hawija district, southwest of Kirkuk, killing and wounding “several” ISIS fighters. A separate report stated that Iraqi airstrikes targeted four ISIS positions in central Hawija. On June 12, an Iraqi airstrike destroyed a “media building” in Hawija, killing “around 30” ISIS members.

On June 12, an Anbar Operations Command (AOC) source stated that the Federal Police (FP) 2nd Brigade dismantled a Vehicle-Borne Improvised Explosive Device (VBIED) on Palestine Street in the Rusafa area in eastern Baghdad and the Iraqi Army (IA) 54th Brigade dismantled a VBIED in the Qadisiya area of northwestern Baghdad.

On June 12, a Diyala provincial council member stated that Peshmerga conducted operations to clear ISIS “sleeper cells” in Qara Tapa sub-district, west of Khanaqin. A separate report stated that Iraqi airstrikes targeted four ISIS positions in central Hawija. On June 12, an Iraqi airstrike destroyed a “media building” in Hawija, killing “around 30” ISIS members.

On June 11, the BOC stated that the IA 59th Brigade cleared al-Hamra area, northwest of Garma sub-district, northeast of Fallujah, destroying five “explosives factories” and six VBIEDs. The MoD also stated that ISF airstrikes destroyed ISIS “dens” near Shiha Bridge, north of Garma. On June 12, a “Popular Mobilization” commander stated that the IA and “Popular Mobilization” killed five ISIS members in the Rashad area of Garma. The Nujaba Movement also stated that its fighters killed an ISIS member in Garma.

On June 11, an anonymous security source stated that coalition airstrikes destroyed an ISIS “headquarters” in central Hawija district, southwest of Kirkuk, killing and wounding “several” ISIS fighters. A separate report stated that Iraqi airstrikes targeted four ISIS positions in central Hawija. On June 12, an Iraqi airstrike destroyed a “media building” in Hawija, killing “around 30” ISIS members.